Acoustic Folk-Rock Duo

"the ory no'man too's" sound is seeping history with the spirit's of great artists such as; Bob Dylan, Jeff Buckley, Woody Guthrie, and Richie Havens, immortalized in the duo's fiery musicality. Their depth and presence as individuals, and as artists are immense, intense, and inescapable. Intensely rhythmic acoustic guitar is coupled with psychedelic harmonica interludes while cryptically witty lyrics are belted out drenched in passion and sincerity.

Currently based out of Toronto, Ontario, the duo consists of ory no'man on vocals, guitar, and harmonica, and Jason Skinedziel on upright bass. The high energy folk rock duo has been steadily gaining fans and momentum through their engaging and entertaining live shows. Believing in the grass roots approach to success in the industry, the duo follows a relentless performing and touring schedule; having successfully completed 2 cross Canada tours and played over 200 performances from Victoria BC to Toronto, ON. The duo was also featured at Toronto's City Roots Citywide festival, played on two live to air radio sessions on CIUT 89.5, and was invited to play at the after party of the Western Canadian Music Awards.

As a solo artist ory started his career in Victoria, BC and has also organized and completed two cross Canada Tours from Victoria, BC, to Quebec City, PQ, and was included in the 2005 North Country Fair festival in Driftpile, AB.

The duo is now planning to record their debut release with acclaimed producer John Switzer (Jane Siberry, The Waltons, and Nathan) while also planning their 2007 touring and festival schedule which is sure to catapult them to the next level in the industry.
